RECITALS

This Memorandum of Understanding (“Memorandum”) establishes the foundation for a co-operative and productive relationship between the Parties.

1. Objectives

---

The Purpose of this Memorandum is to promote cooperation in the teaching learning and research activities of the Parties and any other specific purposes set out in item 3 of the Schedule.

2. Principles

The following principles underpin what the parties seek to achieve in entering into this Memorandum:

- (a) strengthened lines of communication, including improving mechanisms to facilitate exchanges of ideas and information of mutual interest to the parties; and
- (b) identifying and promoting potential opportunities for collaborative effort between the parties (including with the involvement of third parties).

3. Specific Activities

If the parties (either alone or with other persons) ultimately agree to undertake a particular project or initiative, then the terms and conditions of that project or initiative shall be the subject of a formal agreement or other instrument between the parties (and, if applicable, including any third parties) as negotiated by the parties.

4. Implementation

4.1 Steering Committee

- (a) Soon after signing this Memorandum, the parties may establish a steering committee which will operate according to terms of reference to be agreed between the parties, applying the following principles:
  - (i) each party will be entitled to appoint an equal number of representatives;
  - (ii) the steering group will elect a chair for a specified term, which shall rotate between the parties;
  - (iii) the parties are to appoint representatives who are key stakeholders and will be in a position to contribute to and implement any strategic directions agreed between the parties; and
  - (iv) the steering committee may establish sub-groups and working parties to identify, develop or plan any specific projects or initiatives.
- (b) The parties will develop more detailed meeting procedures between the parties when the steering group is implemented.

4.2 Status of this document

This Memorandum does not create any legally binding relationship between the parties, or confer any legal rights or impose any legal obligations on either of them.

- (a) the Organisation confirms that the English version is a true and correct translation of the version in the language of the country of the Organisation; and
- (b) the Parties agree that if there is a discrepancy between the meanings in the English version and the other version, the English version will prevail.

12. Interpretations

Parties means the University and the Organisation whose details are specified in Part A of the Schedule.

Schedule means the document at the front of this Memorandum containing the Parties' details (Part A) and the Memorandum Details (Part B).
